About Abraham Lincoln University

Located in Los Angeles, ALU began in 1996 as one of California’s first distance education law schools. Today, ALU is an accredited, student-centered online university providing flexible, affordable and high quality undergraduate and graduate degrees and diploma programs with a focus in law, business, arts and sciences and information technology.

Abraham Lincoln University is accredited by the Accrediting Commission of the Distance Education and Training Council.

The School of Law is registered with the Committee of Bar Examiners (CBE) of the State Bar of California as an unaccredited distance learning law school. ALU’s authority to grant a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree, which qualifies graduates to take the California Bar Examination, is through the Committee of Bar Examiners.

“Changing tomorrows, one student at a time.”

Education designed to meet the needs and time constraints of today’s law enforcement professionals.

Welcome to Abraham Lincoln University

As a former Special Assistant United States Attorney in the Central District of California, I genuinely respect the commitment and sacrifices that law enforcement professionals make every day on the job. Whether you are beginning or completing a college degree, or are prepared to enroll in the ALU School of Law Juris Doctor program, the ALU faculty and staff are fully committed to provide accessible, quality academic programs and personalized service at a reasonable cost to all law enforcement personnel.

Carole J. Buckner, Dean of School of Law

Academic Excellence

ALU’s online undergraduate and graduate programs serve students preparing for personal or professional advancement in law enforcement, business, government and legal professions. The areas of study are intended to prepare graduates for opportunities during their law enforcement careers and to provide an educational foundation for those who retire or transition to civilian life.

Dynamic, technology-based distance education environment engages students in a rich, multi-media learning experience.

Online classroom student access is typically available 24 hours a day, seven (7) days a week, including holidays.

Qualified faculty with industry experience interact with students continuously throughout each course via phone, discussion board postings and email.

Academic progress advisors (APA) act as the student advocate and single point of contact from date of enrollment until graduation and proactively monitor student progress.
