About Abraham Lincoln University

Located in Los Angeles, ALU began in 1996 as one of California’s first distance education law schools. Today, ALU is an accredited, student-centered online university providing flexible, affordable and high quality undergraduate and graduate degrees and diploma programs with a focus in law, business, arts and sciences and information technology.

Abraham Lincoln University is accredited by the Accrediting Commission of the Distance Education and Training Council.

The Accrediting Commission is listed by the U.S. Department of Education as a nationally recognized accrediting agency and is a recognized member of the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Please visit www.detc.org for further information.

“Changing tomorrows, one student at a time.”

Education designed to meet the needs and time constraints of today’s military spouses and dependents.

Welcome to Abraham Lincoln University

As a U.S. military veteran, I genuinely respect the commitment and sacrifices that families in today's military make every day. It is a privilege to support military spouses seeking education that leads to portable careers. Whether you are beginning or completing a diploma program or college degree, the ALU faculty and staff are fully committed to providing accessible, quality academic programs and personalized service to all military spouses and dependents.

Academic Accountability

ALU's online diploma, undergraduate and graduate programs serve students preparing for career advancement in military, business, government, law enforcement, legal and other professions. Diploma programs and associate degrees provide a portable career path for spouses who may be using MyCAA. Bachelor’s and master’s degrees provide an educational foundation for military spouses and dependents who may be eligible to use the GI Bill.

Dynamic, technology-based distance education environment engages students in a rich, multi-media learning experience.

Online classroom student access is typically available 24 hours a day, seven (7) days a week, including holidays.

Qualified faculty with industry experience interact with students continuously throughout each course via live chat, discussion board postings and email.

Academic progress advisors (APA) act as the student advocate and single point of contact from date of enrollment until graduation and proactively monitor student progress.
