Students are entitled to a list of job classifications considered to be in the field of this educational program. To obtain this list, please ask an institutional representative or you can review the list at http://www.alu.edu/docs/factsheets/ALUBPPE%20Occupation%20List.pdf.

Student’s Initials: ___________  Date: __________

ALU does not advertise or provide placement services nor does it express or imply that a particular salary may be earned after completing a degree or certificate program. In addition, the General Studies degrees are not designed to lead to a particular career, occupation, vocation, trade, job, or job title. However, salary data for a particular career, occupation, trade, job, or job title are available at Employment Development Department’s Occupational Employment Statistics, if that data is available.

1 “Number of Students Who Began Program” means the number of students who began the program who are scheduled to complete the program within the reporting calendar year, and includes all the students who remained enrolled after their cancellation period.

2 “Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length.

3 “Graduates available for employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment. “Graduates unavailable for employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

4 “Graduates employed in the field” means graduates who are gainfully employed in a single position for which the institution represents the program prepares its graduates within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the period of employment must begin within six months of the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

5 “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
